WASHINGTON LAID TO REST IN TUSKEGEE

EIGHT THOUSAND ATTEND FUNERAL HERE LAST NIGHT. CATOR, TUSKEGEE A HALF MILLION DOLLAR MONUMENT. ENTIRE COUNTRY MOURNS LOSS.

Argus Receives Telegram Announcing Hour of Funeral

Wednesday morning, at ten o'clock, the body of Booker T. Washington was placed beneath the sod on the soil he loved so well, where he had reared to his own memory a monument more lasting than stone—the famous Tuskegee Institute.

Before the country could recover from the shock of Dr. Washington's sudden collapse, it was prostrated by the news of his untimely death at the age of fifty-seven years.

Dr. Washington was apparently strong and vigorous and destined to live many years, but the strain of overwork and business cares was insidiously sapping his strength and vitality, and realizing at last his serious condition, he hastened to New York, attended by his loving wife and secretary. He consulted an eminent physician and took treatment in a private sanitarium. The specialists' diagnosis revealed the fact that Dr. Washington was a nervous wreck, aging rapidly and that his arteries were hardening.

When Dr. Washington realized the end was near, he requested that he be taken back to Tuskegee, and there, in the quiet watches just before dawn, at 4 a. m., Sunday, he wrapped the drapery of his couch about him and lay down to pleasant dreams.

Wednesday morning, at ten o'clock, eight thousand people, among whom were prominent men and women of both races, assembled to pay their last tribute and to add their eulogy to the character of the illustrious leader of the race.

The public are cordially invited to be present at the dedication exercises, as well as to visit and inspect the building.

A wonderful praise service was held in the parlor of the Wheatley Branch Y. W. C. A. Sunday afternoon.

A large number of members were present and all arrangements were made for the "Members Processional" from our old building to our new headquarters at Lucas and Garrison Avenues.

MAYOR KIEL CONGRATULATES PICTURE MGRS.

Republican Officials Join in Celebration of 150th Performance of "Birth of a Nation." That Pictures Negroes as Brutes

According to the daily press, the management of the "Birth of a Nation" celebrated the one hundred and fiftieth production of the photo play in St. Louis Monday night, November 15, with a dinner at the Hotel Jefferson. The guests attended the show at the Garrick Theatre earlier in the evening and listened to a long distance telephone conversation between New York and San Francisco. The St. Louis guests were out in the line by means of individual receivers. They were told that St. Louis was a better town than New York for at least two reasons.

Mayor Henry W. Kiel occupied a box at the theater party and was one of the press dinner speakers. According to the press reports, the mayor congratulated the manager and producer upon their success. The following composed the list of supper guests given by the St. Louis Republic: Homer Bassford, Louis H. Walke, George A. Wiperman, Judge J. Hugo Grimm, Charles R. Graves, Dr. W. C. Kennedy, M. B. Anderson, J. M. McKelvey, B. Thomas, M. J. Collins, Col. Fred D. Gardner, Melville Stoltz, Walter Sanford and City Controller, Chas. Daues. Postmaster Selph Grimm, Graves, Daues, and McKelvey are Republican office holders. J. B. Thomas is an aspiring Republican and ran for the nomination for Circuit Clerk against Graves two years ago.

Negroes are loud in their denunciation of Mayor Kiel and his Republican leaders for their action Monday night. They point to the fact that the Negroes of St. Louis made a strong protest against the pictures when they were first shown here and a delegation of fifty representative Negroes called on the mayor and asked him to prevent the showing of the pictures in St. Louis. Now, for him, his city councillor and other Republicans officials to show congratulations upon the producer and managers of this photo play which holds the Negro up to ridicule and pictures him as a brute, they state is an affront to the colored people and throws doubt upon the mayor's sincerity in the promises he made the committee of fifty to do all in his power to prevent the pictures being shown at the time they called on him. The incident is being widely discussed among colored men, and many of the criticisms of the handling of the court proceedings when an effort was being made to prevent the show and punish the producers have been heard again.

NASHVILLIANS ATTEND WASHINGTON FUNERAL

BOARD OF ALDERMAN REFUSE TO ACT AND ELECTION COMMISSIONERS CALL ELECTION TO TAKE PLACE IN NINETY DAYS. SPIRITED CAMPAIGN

The Segregation Ordinance Explained by Geo. L. Vaughn

February 29, 1916 has been selected as the day upon which the special election on the segregation ordinances will be voted upon. Under the initiative law, the Board of Election Commissioners must call the election within ninety days after it is officially notified by the Board of Aldermen that it has failed to act. The ninety days will expire on the 15th of February next.

The voters will be called upon to consider two ordinances. One is termed an "Initiative Petition for Control of Mixed Blocks Occupied by both White and Colored People," and the other is called an "Initiative Petition for Segregation of White and Colored People." There are eight sections in the first petition and seven in the second. Both petitions provide that it shall be unlawful for white people to live in a colored block, or use buildings as places of assembly and that it shall be unlawful for colored people to live in a white block or occupy buildings as places of assembly. One of the petitions specifies churches, schools and dance halls. Both define a block as both a street and the front of the lots thereon to the rear of such lots between the two intersecting streets; but they differ in defining white and colored blocks in that one means a block where white people reside and no colored people live, and where colored people live and no white people live, while the other denominates a block in which seventy-five per cent of the people are white, a white block, and where seventy-five per cent of the people are colored a colored block. Ninety-five per cent of the people are white people and white servants of colored people may live on the premises of their employers. Both petitions provide penalties or fines of not less than ten, nor more than one hundred dollars for each offense; and make each day's violation a separate offense. They also have a common provision to the effect that the invalidity of any part of the ordinance shall not render the other portions thereof provided they can be given effect without the invalid part. Both are to go into effect in ninety days after adoption. Should the ordinances pass, the definition of white or colored blocks would be as given in the section providing for a segregation of the race.

Section four of the Petition for Segregation of White and Colored People makes it the duty of the building commissioner to prepare and keep on hand a map showing the places where white and which are colored blocks and makes it obligatory on the residents of the blocks to give correct information when asked by the inhabitants of a building are white or colored under penalty of a fine.

Section four of the Petition for Segregation of White and Colored People provides a method for opening up new blocks where there are no buildings already erected. It is by far the most dangerous provision (Continued on page 4.)

JEFFERSON CITY NOTES

By W. C. Major

The Jefferson City Athletic Team was defeated by the Hustling Tens 14 to 0 by Pondexter and Mangus intercepting a couple of forward passes made by Jefferson City. The feature of the game was the heavy line plunges made by Happy Berry our star full-back. The boys played well and deserve credit for their wonderful showing. Messrs. Hampus Hayes and John Moore left Wednesday with the Hunting Club, for a ten days' hunt. A journey of about forty or fifty miles. The election, Tuesday, on the nine year term of the lighting of the city was won by a vote of 4 to 1. That means a cheaper light and a saving of $5,000 a year for the city. The Columbia High defeated the Lincoln Institute Tigers 26 to 3, in a hard fought game. Several of the Lincoln boys received minor bruises, nothing serious. A large crowd witnessed the game. The reporter of Columbia will report the game in their column this week. The brotherhood will have their banquet December 1. Let every member bring a new member with him at our next meeting. The Columbia delegation was one of the leading forces during the election. As the band marched through the heart of the city, followed by 175 routers, with banner flying. Quite a large delegation was present from St. Louis. All of the churches are making extensive preparations for their Thanksgiving exercises. The A. M. E. Church is making a special effort with a Mock Conference. Our Franklin School Football Team defeated a team from Sumner High by a score of 12 to 0 at Blanchette Park last Saturday afternoon. Mrs. P. J. Evans, Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Harris entertained some young people Sunday afternoon. Delicious refreshments were served. Thanksgiving Day services will be observed by both churches. If life is spared you, take time that day to be holy lest the next one finds you elsewhere. Give honor and praise to Christ your God. Dr. F. S. Bowles will be present Sunday at the M. E. Church to conduct quarterly meeting. Rev. Spurlock will preach the sacramental sermon. We deeply regret to hear of the death of Mr. Sterling Alexander, which occurred Sunday morning at Curryville. METROPOLITAN NOTES

Preaching at 11 O'clock Choir Processional at 10:50

Last Sunday was another great day at the Metropolitan A. M. E. Zion Church. One can not go to Metropolitan Church without being moved in a spiritual way.

Rev. Shaw is one of the most hard worked men in the ministry of St. Louis, but walks into his pulpit Sunday mornings and evenings brim full of solid gospel, pours it out as a man of authority. He is ably assisted in the services by perhaps one of the best choirs that St. Louis has ever witnessed. Their songs are high chords, inspiring and uplifting, one of the most beautiful features of their last Sunday's music was a beautiful song, "Rock of Ages," in chimes.

One of the great advantages of this choir is that they have a chorister in the person of Prof. Robert Austin who never grows weary in the practices each week.

The chime interlude for Sunday will be at 11:30 sharp. The pastor is working hard to close the service at 12:45 each Sabbath.

A big Thanksgiving dinner will be given at Metropolitan Church next Thursday, at eleven o'clock.

ATHLETICS AND AMUSEMENTS
By R. T. M.

THEATRES

BRIGHT-SMITH PLAYERS HAVE CREDIBLE SHOW

In "The Insult" at the Booker Washington Theater this Week

The Bright-Smith Players are winding up a two weeks engagement at the Booker Washington, with a musical comedy show entitled, "The Insult." The presentation is a creditable display of talent. The title is conspicuous only in the latter half when "Lord Haverbury" is supposed to be a "Jack Stuart," a society leader. This results in a mock fight, an adoption from a similar scene from Dudley's "Trip to Coon Town." The rest of the program is made up of a series of vaudeville numbers with a Halloween party as the nucleus. There are several bright spots in the production. Dainty Theresa Burroughs-Brooks, as "Pearl Highgate," is delightfully entertaining, especially in singing "Debraska" and in her subsequent dance.

DAINTY THERESA BOROUGHS-BROOKS

Joe Bright and Speedy Smith in their operatic burlesque and comedy and their restaurant scene with Miss Highgate, are full of humor and fun. DeGaston and Miss Maybelle Brown are extra good in an artistic soft shoe dance. The balance of the company is fair.

Miss Florence Sewell does not possess the power and expression to do justice to "My Parisian Rose." The comedians weaken their act by holding the stage too long. The production, as a whole, is good, it is clean cut without any vulgar appendages and the company will leave a favorable impression here.

TIM MOORE COMING WITH BIG COMEDY COMPANY

Tim Moore's Chicago Follies, a big comedy company, will be the next attraction at the Booker Washington Theater beginning Monday, the 22nd. The offering will be, "Lost in Africa," a play built for laughing purposes only. The cast is a talented one including McConico, the ventriloquist, Leonard Harper, Elbert White, William Brown, Osceola Banks, Ella Harris, Frankie Barton, Gerrie Moore and the greatest of all comedians, Tim Moore. The entire company is composed of high class performers. Several being St. Louis favorites and a week of rare entertainment is the outlook.

Joe Golpin's Stock Company disbanded after a week's engagement at Charles Hunter Theater. They do say that Uncle Joe and John Barleycorn are too intimate for Joe's own good. Too bad. Too bad.

NEW METHOD TO REMOVE GREASE FROM HAIR AFTER TREATMENT

Miss Daisy English, proprietress of the Modern Hair Dressing Parlor, at 1822 N. Pendleton, has discovered a method for treating the hair which leaves it soft and greaseless, giving a natural effect. The preparation is absolutely harmless and is a boon to many ladies who have heretofore objected to hair treatment because of the greasy after-effect. Miss English uses the Molar-system, gives first treatment, on ordinary work, for 50 cents, and box of oil free. She reports constantly increasing business and offers tempting inducements to young ladies who wish to demonstrate her new preparation.

DR. J. L. GRIGBY

Wishes to announce to his many friends and patrons that he is now permanently located at the corner of Laclede and Compton avenues (13150) and is open for business. General Family Physician. Residence over office.

8 Reasons Why You Should Buy A Wurlitzer Piano

Because of the vast variety of makes.
Because of the famous names and old-time reputations of the instruments.
Because at no other store in this section can these makes be seen.
Because of the clean, protective Wurlitzer selling policy of one price to everybody and a commission to one, which means absolutely fair treatment and prevents overcharge.
Because Wurlitzer prices are marked in plain figures and a child can buy as cheaply as the shrewdest bargainer.
Because Wurlitzer will give you liberal exchange privileges and refund your money should you find your piano not exactly as represented.
Because Wurlitzer exploits only inequality and thereby gives values that will be satisfactory always.
Because Wurlitzer manufactures only high grade pianos and sells them to you at the builder's price with all middlemen's profits eliminated.
